INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS' CONFERENCE 2018 AT BANGKOK

Four students from Modern School, Dron Sharma (S6C), Rhythm Nagpal (S7E), Hridayam Arora (S6E) and Varun Malhotra (S6E) attended the International Students' Conference 2018 at Bangkok from 26th to 31st August 2018. It was a five day leadership Conference and its theme was "The Youth of Today, The Light of Tomorrow". The first day of the Conference entailed an ice-breaking session with the formal opening ceremony resounding its main aims followed by the keynote address. The Plenary Sessions involved presentations from the participating schools followed by a Thai cultural extravaganza by the host school. On the third day, various activities were performed at Matthayomwat Nairong School which was followed by visits to different places of attraction like Jesada Technik Museum, Upside-down World, Floating Market and Asiatique. The next day started with the Plenary Session 3 in which Hridayam Arora of Modern School was the Chairperson. A perfect end to the day was the Cultural Night where the students from different countries showcased their rich culture. The final day comprised a grand closing ceremony where the schools from different countries presented a token of appreciation to the Chairperson of NISC.

YOUNG LEADERS' CONCLAVE 2018

The Young Leaders' Conclave (YLC) was hosted by Modern School Vasant Vihar on 10th August 2018 on the theme 'Dreams And Aspirations'. A group of about 100 students from all over India participated in this grand event. Our students Pradyuman Raj Mehta (S7C), Chaitanya Jain (S7F), Riya Jindal (S7I) and Prakriti Dahiya (S7F) attended various workshops conducted by Mr Anuragshu Sharma (noted Composer and Performer), Mr Tathagata Chowdhury (Founder, 'Theatrician') and Ayaan and Amaan Ali Khan Bangash (Classical Musicians). They also had an opportunity to visit the National School of Drama. The Conclave was a great learning experience which instilled a spirit of compassionate leadership in young leaders.

THE COLUMBAN VOYAGE

The most acclaimed, nail biting Kunal Savarkar saturated, iconic quiz of North India- the Columban Open Quiz held on 24th and 25th August 2018 at St. Columba's saw our quizzing titans Kaartikay Agarwal (S7J), Aditya Sarkar (S7D), Akshat Singhal (S7C) and Arjun Khanchandani (S6C) notching a splendid Third position. Their gravitas and stoic stance, their pursuit for excellence and above all, their ability to masterfully sail through a marathon titanic cruise adds an extra zing to their keenly contested victory. The battle of wits saw Shashank Ramesh (S7C), Kunal Saluja (S7B), Rijul Ganju (S5E) and Rahul Pandey (S4E) winning the fourth place. The acumen, the panache and zest for the quizzable in these passionate quizzers is what makes them extraordinary.
