GANDHI HOUSE FUNCTION

A spectacular and fun filled evening was presented by the members and teachers of Gandhi House on the occasion of their Biennial House Function on 28th April, 2017. Eminent educationist Mr B. K. Sood was the Chief Guest for the evening. The show began with a rocking performance on Drums by Eshaan Minocha. On the occasion of World Dance Day, members of the house presented a ballet showcasing various dance forms of India followed by a solo dance performance by Manya Sikka and a Fusion dance. The main attraction of the evening was the play "Mother's Day" by J. B. Priestly, enacted by the budding actors of S6 and S7. Our mothers work relentlessly and deserve a much better treatment for their continuous devotion and hard work, was the message conveyed beautifully by the play. The boys group next presented a tribute to the King of pop and dance - Michael Jackson The House song was truly inspirational. The event received accolades from the Principal and the Chief Guest.
