NATURE CLUB ACTIVITIES

➤ On Green Initiative

On 20th November, Farhan Ahmed, Pradyumn Arora, Zaina Sharma, Anirudh Jain and Ayan Mehra of class S3 visited the WWF Office at New Delhi to attend a ‘Go Green’ workshop on ‘Green’ career opportunities. The Guest of Honour was Ms Megha Aggarwal, author of the book, ‘The Green Guide to Environment Courses and Careers’.

The event began with a short explanation on ‘Carbon-Footprint Reduction’. The guest then proceeded to inform about the ‘Green’ possibilities hidden in every career. She gave a diverse scenario on which she herself has worked on, such as the problem concerning elephant migration in India. In an interesting activity, the children were mixed and divided into groups of four. A fake judicial court was set up, with a jury, and each group was given a topic to defend or to challenge. Pradyumn Arora and Farhan Ahmed were adjudged Best Speaker and Best Defender respectively. Anirudh Jain and Ayan Mehra won a prize for the Best Jury.

➤ Oxygen Bombers

On 3rd November 2017, the Nature Club of Modern organised an activity in an attempt to purify the surrounding air with the help of plants. The students and teachers of Nature Club brought plants like Ficus, Snake Plant, Spider Plant, Aloe Vera and Money Plant which absorb methane and carbon dioxide from the air and release oxygen. These plants were placed in all classrooms, staffrooms and the Principal’s office to provide fresh air to everyone.

➤ Bird Feeders

The S4 students of Nature Club were involved in an interesting activity on making bird feeders using recycled waste. About 50 bird feeders have been made by students to be put at various sites in the school. They are made from recycled plastic bottles, spoons and tetra packs and decorated beautifully with coloured paper.

INTRA ACCESS 2017

The Bits 'N Bytes Club of Modern School held its Annual Intra-School Tech Symposium, 'Intra ACCESS 2017' on 22nd and 23rd November 2017 in the school. Its aim was to find students who have the flame of technology burning within them, and to provide them with a platform to prove their talents.

This year the club showcased a fiery line up of events including Quizzing, Webpage Designing, 3-D Modelling, Digital Imaging, Programming and Audio Visual Editing, all organized and designed in such a manner so as to ensure that this chain of events would ignite a new level of curiosity and drive for technology in the young minds of students of Modern School.

It was a competition open to all students from classes S1 to S6 in which the students used their creativity and imagination to overcome challenges put forth by the members of Bits 'N Bytes Club.

In an ultimate battle of wits to emerge victorious, around 150 students from the school participated with enthusiasm and competed to outperform others. The club also organized a surprise Gaming Session on the second day for all the performers to help them calm their senses and enjoy the pleasure of having fun with their friends playing games like FIFA and Call of Duty. The students enjoyed themselves and got to learn many new things.

IPSC- LITERARY FEST 2017

The IPSC Literary Fest 2017 was held at Maharani Gayatri Devi Girl's School, Jaipur from 16th -18th November 2017. The fest included eleven marvelous events, in both Hindi and English. A delegation of eight students from S4 and S6 of Modern School participated in the event.

The English events included Literary Quiz, What's The Good Word? (vocabulary game), Speak Your Mind(English Debate), Twisted Tales(Story Writing) and Verse Your Words(Slam Poetry). The Hindi Events included Yatra Vritant, Hindi Debate, Advertisement, Kavita Enactment, Shloka Recitation and Double Trouble (Translation of Text). Rishabh Raheja from S6 B stood first in Verse Your Words.

Students from each school exhibited great talent in the cultural night followed by interaction among participants from various schools nationwide. The literary fest was an enriching experience for all participants and a wonderful platform for students.
