Col Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore, AVSM; Mrs Ketaki Sood, President, Board of Trustees, Modern Schools; Col Vijay Chadda, Chairman, Managing Committee, Modern School Barakhamba Road; Members of the Board of Trustees, Distinguished Guests, Ladies and Gentlemen.

It is a joy and a privilege to welcome you all to the 99th Founder's Day, a year of celebration and commemoration as I feel it is pertinent to pay tribute to the guiding light, Lala Raghubir Singh who, a hundred years ago, had the foresight to dream of a school which successfully blended the best of both the worlds, the Indian and the modern. His father Rai Bahadur Sultan Singh was an enlightened, public spirited and well-travelled individual, whose home was always open for the National leaders of the time and as a result, Lala ji's journey to realise his dreams was galvanized by, not only his father, but also by other great men like Gandhi ji, C.F. Andrews, Rabindra Nath Tagore and so many more. The vision of the dream took roots in the haveli at Daryaganj and found wings at this present campus at Barakhamba Road, with support of many a profound man, notable among them being Sir Sobha Singh, who was instrumental in the design and the legendary architecture of red brick walls of this heritage building. Sir Sobha Singh, one of the founding members of the school, was invited by Lala Ji to head the Board of Trustees, after the demise of his father Rai Bahadur Sultan Singh, which he did, for well over 40 years. This phenomenal institution is what it is due to the exemplary doyens it has had at its helm down the century, like Dr SK Sen, Major General Veerendra Singh and others who realized the dream of Lala ji and helped carry his vision forward.

Tonight, is also the night to celebrate and raise toast to all the wonderful achievements of the school and our students in the year gone by.

But before that, let me introduce you to the Chief Guest for this Founder's Day. Although, an eminent and distinguished personality like our Chief Guest hardly requires any introduction, I would like to do the honours.

Colonel Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore AVSM is a Member of the Parliament, an Olympic medalist and the recipient of Padma Shri, Khel Ratna and Arjuna Award.

Born in to an army family, Colonel Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore graduated from the National Defence Academy and later attended the Indian Military Academy, where he was awarded with the Sword of Honour for being the Best All-round Gentleman Cadet. He was also the recipient of the Sikh Regiment Gold Medal, awarded to the best sportsman of the course.

Colonel Rathore had an illustrious career in the army during which he served in militancy infected Kashmir and also participated in the Kargil War. The President of India honoured him with the Ati Vishisht Seva Medal at the young age of 34, the first time in the history of Indian Army, a Major was given this prestigious honour, usually awarded to officers of the rank of Generals. And as his mother believed, his stint in the army held in good stead during the Olympic Final.

A second Generation Army officer, Col Rathore served in the Jaipur based 9 Grenadiers, which his father commanded, once.

Colonel Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore first stepped in a shooting range in the mid-1990s and in 2004, he became India's first ever individual silver medal winner at the Olympic Games after finishing second in the men's double trap at the 2004 Olympic Athens Games.

Colonel's recovery from a patella fracture and a prolapsed disc to the Olympic medal is well-known.

In 2004, he won the World Shooting Championship in Sydney. His winning streak continued further and in the year 2006, he won Gold Medal in Commonwealth Games held in Melbourne and another gold in the World Shooting Championship held at Cairo in the same year.

Colonel Rajyavardhan Singh Rathore has a long list of awards and recognition conferred upon him for delivering exceptional service to the nation as an army man and as a sportsperson.

An Arjuna Awardee, Colonel Rajya Vardhan Singh Rathore is the recipient of the highly prestigious Padma Shri and is also the proud recipient of the Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna, which is the highest Sporting Honour of India.

Colonel Rathore was chosen to be the flag bearer for India during the 2006 Commonwealth Games held in Melbourne, Australia and the 2008 Summer Olympics at Beijing in China. He has won over 25 international medals in Double Trap Championship held in different countries between 2002 and 2006.

Sir, we are indeed honoured to have you amongst us this evening. On behalf of the entire Modern School fraternity, we once again welcome you Sir! We would also like to extend a hearty welcome to his spouse, Ms Gayatri Rathore. Sir and Madam, it's a pleasure to have you with us this evening.

Ladies and Gentlemen, Modern School Barakhamba Road grew in leaps and bounds under the able mentorship of our ex-President Mr Ashok Pratap Singh and continues to steer to greater heights under the stewardship of Mrs Ketaki Sood, President, Board of Trustees, Modern Schools. Her faith in us, along with the guidance of Col Vijay Chadda and other members of the Board of Trustees, motivates us to continue to strive harder and better ourselves, to achieve greater heights in all spheres. Let me reiterate, that for us, at Modern, the sky is not the limit.

1. INITIATIVES

Academics:

Learner Centric Approach

Besides providing holistic education, from the current academic session our School has been focusing on the Learner Centric Approach and ensuring that not only the students actually comprehend, learn and enjoy the lessons taught to them in their classes but also the entire faculty ensures being a life-long learner. Our School has been meticulously following a few pedagogical practices (mostly designed by us) that aid academic transactions in some way. Some of the prime practices are – (a) Visit to Science Park set up in School (b) D.E.A.R. classes for perfecting languages and knowledge (c) B.A.L.A. for a photographic memory (d) Special Classes of S7 students for a thorough and intense preparation for Board Examination (e) Up-to-Speed Classes to help the newly admitted Class S6 students to bring them at par with the other students (f) Flipped

Classes for instructional strategy and blended learning (g) Smart Boards (h) 'Apply it Now' – Real World Application with Inter-Disciplinary Approach' and feedback through Reflection Sheets (i) Special Revision Classes (j) 'Super Brain Yoga' and 'Twin Heart Meditation' for improved focus (k) Progressive Minds'Workshops (l) Comprehensive Evaluation of English Language Skills and Appreciation of Literature (m) Mind Mapping (n) Hub Activities through 'Srjna' Experiential Learning Tools, Numbola, Project 'Hopscotch', What's the Question etc.

Apart from this, Academic Audit is conducted to assess the quality of assessment of the answer-scripts after a test/examination to ascertain inadequacies and overcome them and (b) Feedback about the teachers is obtained from the outgoing batch of students.

Differentiated Learning

Being a Learner-Centric School, continuous efforts are made to create a greater learning atmosphere in school, where both the teacher and the students. Endeavour is made to teach at a pace that suits learning needs of every student. Differentiated learning is being practised rather than delivering one-size-fits-all lessons to the entire class.

Blended Learning

Greater emphasis is being laid to integrate technology with the traditional learning, as technology helps in making teaching, learning and research more meaningful and enjoyable. It keeps students motivated as well as engaged in what they are learning. Keeping abreast with the technological advancements, the teachers, too focus on digital usage to explore new pedagogical innovations.

STEM Education

STEM (Science, Technology, Engineering, and Mathematics) education is the need of the hour to create critical thinkers, problem-solvers and next generation innovators, hence STEM learning is brought into sharper focus.

Regular Inspection of the Notebooks - Thrice during an Academic Year – In order to monitor the quality and quantity of the written work in the notebooks by the students and, to ensure that the work is being regularly corrected by their respective subject teachers, an exercise has been initiated by the Principal, wherein the notebooks of all the students of all the classes are inspected by the Headmistresses. This exercise is carried out thrice during the academic year at an interval, which is most beneficial for the students. The English language notebooks are checked with a view to evaluate the English language skills and appreciation of literature by the students.

The Principal has commenced 'Class-Observation' from January 2019 where the Principal observes teaching-learning process in all the classes – from S1 to S7 across all subjects. The teachers are appreciative of the feedback as it helps them enhance their teaching skills, making their teaching more effective.

Progressive Minds' Workshops are being conducted for the students of Class S6 during the Class Teacher's Period, in an endeavour to improve the concentration level and academic grades of the students.

Modern School Barakhamba Road for the record sixth time is set to host the 80th Session of the IPSC Principals' Conclave held from 5th to 7th January 2020 on the theme 'Education Four Point Zero'. Being the host school, on this occasion, our school will also release the 'IPSC Schools' Directory – 2019'.

Upgradation of Infrastructural Facilities

An Audio Recording Studio has been set up in our School. It caters to all the requirements of audio recordings for various functions of the school including the House Functions.

From 1st July 2019, our School has inducted 31 Air Conditioned DTC buses. The School has undertaken this initiative to make the travelling for students more congenial during intense weather.
